

Napa County Library's

ART IN THE LIBRARY ART CALL

APPLY JANUARY 15 - MARCH 31, 2024

The Napa County Library invites Napa County residents to apply to a juried competition with award winners' work displayed in the Napa Library. All two-dimensional work including photography, paintings, drawings, digital, mixed media, fabric art, chalk, ink, pastels, wax, graphite, and printmaking can be entered for consideration. Works will be exhibited for 2 months. Previous exhibitors must wait a minimum of two years, from their exhibition date, before applying again.

How to Apply

1. Submit a cover letter. Please include name, address, e-mail and phone number. Artist must be a Napa County resident. Provide a brief bio (250 words or less). Provide a list of the submitted artwork including the title, medium, and dimensions.
2. Submit up to 5 digital image files (jpeg format) by sending the files to ArtintheLibrary@countyofnapa.org. Label all image files (title, name, medium, dimensions). Artwork should not have watermarks or other identifying markers. Contact Stephnia Pramuk 707-253-4223 for more information.

Application Deadline: March 31, 2024
